Clifford Maldow has been a partner at DDK for over 17 years and is instrumental in leading the firm's Management Advisory Services. In addition to his work in accounting, audit, and tax, he's responsible for attracting new business and overseeing billings and collections to ensure efficient operations. Cliff serves clients in industries such as real estate, manufacturing, distribution, and professional services.

Before joining DDK, he was the Managing Partner at another accounting firm, where he honed his leadership skills and deepened his client-focused approach. A dedicated athlete, Cliff brings the same determination to his work that he does to sports. He sees a win for his clients as a win for himself and stays motivated until that outcome is achieved.

Outside the office, Cliff enjoys staying active. He practices yoga and is a 3rd Degree Black Belt in karate. He also enjoys going to the gym, cheering on the New York Islanders, and spending time with his family and his chocolate lab, Harley. He previously served as a board member at the Temple of Elohim.
