Richard Eisenberg is a trusted tax partner known for his work with high-net-worth individuals, as well as his expertise in audit, consulting, review, and tax preparation services. His practice primarily focuses on security and option dealers, traders, and personal income tax matters.

Before joining DDK, Richard was the President and majority owner of Eisenberg and Blau CPAs, P.C. He holds a B.S. in Accounting and Education from Brooklyn College and earned an M.S. in Education, reflecting his background as both a CPA and educator.

Richard finds the ever-evolving nature of tax law both challenging and rewarding. He finds fulfillment in solving complex problems for clients and mentoring colleagues and contributing to their professional growth.

Outside of work, Richard is an active member of the community. He's an award-winning singer/songwriter in the cabaret scene.
