Confident, driven and dedicated to his clients, Jeffrey Zukoff joined the firm in 1988. He applies this confidence to his practice, providing tax compliance and planning services to tax-driven businesses and high net worth individuals across a range of industries. Hedge funds, family offices and real estate firms all rely on his expertise.

"I'm very good at what I do and my clients and associates appreciate that," says Jeffrey. "They appreciate me. I work harder everyday to instill confidence and respect in my work product."

An accounting veteran with more than three decades of experience, prior to joining DDK, Jeffrey was a senior tax partner with a prominent New York firm.

He enjoys travel, and is an avid patron of music, theater and the arts, especially in the Berkshires, where he supports the work of several theaters and performing art centers.
